Dynamic Leverage Terms and Conditions

UEXO Global Ltd

1. Legal Status and Scope

These Dynamic Leverage Terms and Conditions (“Dynamic Leverage Terms”) constitute an addendum to and form an integral part of the Client Agreement entered into between:

UEXO Global Ltd, a company incorporated in Mauritius under company number 179291, licensed by the Financial Services Commission (“FSC”) as an Investment Dealer (Full Service Dealer, excluding underwriting), License No. GB21026300, with its registered office at 12th Floor, Hennessy Court, Pope Hennessy Street, Port Louis 72201, Mauritius (the “Company”);

and

The Client.

UXO Services Ltd (HE437025), Archiepiskopou Makariou III, 84, Office 1, 6017, Larnaca, Cyprus, provides administrative and operational support services to the Company.

In the event of any inconsistency between these Dynamic Leverage Terms and the Client Agreement, the Client Agreement shall prevail unless expressly stated otherwise.

2. Nature of Dynamic Leverage

2.1 Dynamic leverage is a risk-based margin mechanism whereby the maximum leverage available on open positions varies automatically according to:

- Net open exposure
- Instrument category
- Market conditions
- Volatility events
- Internal risk parameters

2.2 Dynamic leverage does not constitute a guaranteed entitlement. It is a discretionary trading parameter subject to amendment, suspension, reduction, or withdrawal at any time in accordance with the Client Agreement.

2.3 The Client acknowledges that leverage magnifies both profits and losses and may result in rapid depletion of equity.

3. Eligibility

3.1 Dynamic leverage is available only on Standard MT5 trading accounts.

3.2 Dynamic leverage does not apply to:

- Pro accounts
- Raw accounts
- PAMM accounts
- Copy trading accounts
- Any other account type designated by the Company

3.3 No bonus or promotional credit shall be granted on Dynamic Leverage accounts.

4. Instruments Covered

Dynamic leverage applies exclusively to:

- Forex Majors & Minors
- Precious Metals (Gold, Silver)
- Indices
- Cryptocurrencies (BTC, ETH, XRP, SOL only)

The Company reserves the right to modify instrument eligibility at its discretion.

5. Dynamic Leverage Structure

5.1 Leverage tiers are determined by Net Open Volume per instrument group.

Gold

Net Open Volume	-	Maximum Leverage
0 – 0.5 Lots	-	1:2000
0.51 – 1 Lot	-	1:1000
1 – 1.99 Lots	-	1:500
2+ Lots	-	1:200

5.2 Forex / Indices

Net Open Volume Leverage	Maximum Leverage	Maximum
-------------------------------------	-------------------------	----------------

	FX	Indices
0 – 1 Lot	1:5000	1:100
1.01 – 2 Lots	1:2000	1:100
2 – 3.99 Lots	1:1000
1:100
4+ Lots	1:500	1:100

5.3 Cryptocurrencies

Net Open Volume	Maximum Leverage
0 – 0.2 Lots	1:1000
0.21 – 15 Lots	1:500
15.01 – 20 Lots	1:200
20.01 – 25 Lots	1:50
25.01 – 50 Lots	1:1

The Company may amend these tiers without prior notice where necessary for risk management or regulatory compliance.

6. Event-Based Temporary Leverage Adjustments

6.1 During periods of heightened market risk, leverage may be automatically reduced without prior notice, including but not limited to:

- Two (2) hours before market close on Fridays or holidays
- Thirty (30) minutes after market open
- Fifteen (15) minutes before and ten (10) minutes after major economic announcements
- Extraordinary market volatility
- Liquidity shortages
- Force majeure events

6.2 Positions opened during such periods may remain subject to the reduced leverage until recalculated under normal trading conditions.

6.3 The Company shall not be liable for margin calls, stop-outs, or losses arising from such adjustments.

7. Margin and Monitoring Obligations

7.1 The Client bears sole responsibility to:

- Monitor open positions
- Monitor leverage ratios
- Maintain sufficient margin
- Adjust exposure accordingly

7.2 The Company is under no obligation to notify the Client before changing leverage.

7.3 Stop-out levels, margin requirements, and liquidation provisions remain governed by the Client Agreement.

8. Abuse and Misuse

8.1 Any abuse, manipulation, or misuse of leverage — including but not limited to:

- Intentional exposure stacking
- Structured risk arbitrage
- Toxic flow patterns
- Latency exploitation

— may result in:

- Immediate reduction of leverage
- Trade cancellation
- Profit adjustment
- Account suspension or termination
- At the Company's sole discretion.

9. No Liability

The Company shall not be liable for:

- Margin calls
- Forced liquidations
- Losses arising from leverage reduction
- Market gaps
- System recalculations
- Regulatory-driven leverage changes
- The Client accepts full trading risk.

10. Amendments and Termination

- 10.1 The Company may amend these Terms at any time.
- 10.2 The Company may terminate Dynamic Leverage privileges with 24 hours' notice or immediately where risk management requires.
- 10.3 Continued trading constitutes acceptance of amendments.

11. Risk Acknowledgment

The Client expressly acknowledges:

- Leveraged trading is high risk.
- Losses may exceed deposits.
- Leverage may change dynamically.

The Client has read and understood the Risk Disclosure Statement and Client Agreement.

12. Governing Law

These Terms are governed by the laws of Mauritius and the regulatory framework of the FSC.
